DR. MILES' HEART CURE.

M. R. O. C. SHULTS, of Winterset, Iowa, inventor and manufacturer of Shults' Safety Whistle Coupling, writes of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. "Two years ago an attack of LaGrippe left me with a weak heart. I had run down in flesh to mere skin and bone. I could not sleep lying down for smothering spells; frequent sharp darting pains and palpitation caused a constant fear of sudden death, nothing could induce me to remain away from home over night. My local physician prescribed Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and in a few days I was able to sleep well and the pains gradually lessened, and finally ceased. I reduced the dose, having gained fifteen pounds, and am now feeling better in every way than I have for years."

A SERIOUS PROBLEM

Believed Congress Will Be Asked to Abandon the Paris Exposition.

AS AN OFFICIAL INSULT

Withdrawal From Participation, Because of Dreyfus Verdict, Might Be So Regarded by the French—Unless Forbidden by Congress the Administration Will Carry Out Its Plans

Washington, Sept. 12.—It is believed that when congress assembles there will be considerable agitation of a proposition for this government to abandon its participation in the Paris exposition. It is known that expressions hostile to the exposition quoted from Senator Stewart are very widely sympathized in and it is thought that if the conviction of Dreyfus is permitted to stand there will be very little friendly feeling for France among members of either the house or senate.

Such a move, however, would be a grave one. It is pointed out that to withdraw from participation in the exposition would be regarded as an official insult to France. No further legislation on the part of congress is needed to carry out the plans of this country for the exposition. About $1,000,000 has been appropriated for the expenses of the commission and the government exhibit; the commission has been appointed and the space desired for exhibits from this country has been secured.

There are now only two ways in which congress could interfere, one would be to revoke such part of the appropriation as has not been already expended in the expenses of the commission and the other would be to pass a resolution declaring that on account of the unsettled conditions the valuable government exhibits should not be sent to Paris. To do either of these things would be sufficient, it is believed, to break off all friendly relations between the two countries.

Congress and the state department may look at the matter from different points of view. The president and the state department having responsibility for maintaining our relations with foreign governments, cannot be expected to find in this affair a reason for involving the country in an international complication, and it is likely that the executive branch of the government will use what influence it can to prevent hasty action.

Unless congress expressly forbids it, this government will proceed with the preparations for the exhibition and will send to Paris such government exhibits as are decided upon, but this will be done with a realization of the probability that much of the space secured with such difficulty for private American exhibits will be left vacant. Little doubt is felt that the latitude allowed the private citizen will be quite extensively availed of to withdraw from participation in the exposition.

Another difficulty in the way of an effort to prevent participation in the exposition, however, will be found in the fact that before congress has assembled much of the government exhibit probably will be packed and on its way to Paris, if not actually there. The exposition opens in April and the work of transporting and preparing the exhibit will have to begin some months before that time. Up to this time it is said the preparation of the government exhibit has not begun, but the work will proceed as soon as the government officials are ready.

Representative Hepburn of Iowa said that he had ceased to marvel at the methods of French army justice after observing how the trial of Dreyfus was conducted. No such trial or verdict was possible in the United States. He

CONSUMPTION.

The germs of consumption are everywhere. You may breathe them in with the air, drink them with water, eat them with your food. They are not dangerous if you are in perfect health but if you have a slight cold, or cough, or if you have inherited weak lungs, or if you are weak and run-down generally—look out!

Once consumption gets a strong foothold it is almost impossible to begin or before it starts. If you are run-down—build yourself up. Make every tissue so strong and well that consumption germs cannot find a foothold. Fill your body with rich, red blood—build up strong, healthy flesh—put your digestive system in perfect order. Don't drug along half dead. You may be well as well as not. The following letter from Mrs. Jennie Dingman, of Van Buren, Kansas Co., Mich., will tell you how to do it. She says: "Before I took

Last spring I had a bad cough; got so bad I had to be in bed all the time. My husband thought I had consumption. We thought we would try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and before I had taken one bottle the cough stopped and I have since had no signs of its returning."

did not think it would in any way affect diplomatic relations between this country and France, nor did he think it would interfere with United States exhibitors at the coming exposition.

TO RELIEVE SAMPSON

Rear Admiral Farquhar to Command the North Atlantic Squadron.

Washington, Sept. 12.—The navy department has reached a final determination to assign Rear Admiral Norman H. Farquhar to command of the North Atlantic Squadron, to succeed Admiral Sampson, and to place the latter in command of the Boston navy yard, to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of Admiral Picking. The transfer will take place on Oct. 10.

Rear Admiral Farquhar is one of the veteran officers of the navy, his service covering the civil war as well as the Spanish-American conflict. His last sea service was as commander of the Newark in 1896. His shore assignments have included stations at the Boston navy yard, the League Island navy yard, and since 1897 at the Norfolk navy yard. He was commissioned rear admiral on March 8 last, under the naval personnel bill.

Invited to Visit St. Paul.

Washington, Sept. 12.—A delegation of Minnesota G. A. R. men yesterday saw President McKinley. The delegation was headed by Judge D. B. Searle, L. Torrence, L. M. Collins and Captain H. A. Castle. The president was asked by Judge Searle if he would be able to visit St. Paul in October. The president answered that he could not promise to make the trip, but would do so if possible.

United States Treasury.

Washington, Sept. 12.—The statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $288,111,000; gold reserve, $254,404,084.

ASK FOR MERCY

Judges of Courtmartial Ask That Dreyfus Be Not Degraded.

Rennes, Sept. 12.—The judges of the Dreyfus courtmartial late yesterday, by mutual agreement, expressed to the president of the republic, through General Lucas, the commander of the army corps at Rennes, their sincere desire that Dreyfus would not be submitted to a fresh degradation.

When M. Labori's secretary informed Dreyfus of this action he was greatly affected and said: "I still have hopes."

AGITATION IN GERMANY

In Favor of Withdrawing From the Paris Exposition.

Berlin, Sept. 12.—The private agitation against the exposition is beginning to find vigorous expressions. The Vossische Zeitung said last evening that a number of the largest German firms have pledged themselves to withdraw. The Berliner Tageblatt says the Berlin council at its next session will consider a special motion to withdraw the Berlin municipal exhibit.

On the other hand it is learned on highest authority that the German government considers the Dreyfus case now, under all the conditions, done with and does not intend to relinquish official representation at the exhibition.

The official responsible for this assurance adds that it should be borne in mind that, despite the Dreyfus case, the official relations between the two governments had steadily improved during recent years.

Court-martial Dossier.

Paris, Sept. 12.—The dossier of the Rennes court-martial proceedings has arrived here for submission to the military court of revision, consisting of General Marcellin, Colonel Courbousse, Lieutenant Colonel Lagrene, Major Opp and Major Allard. It is said that Mathieu Dreyfus intends to supplicate Emperor William to order the publication of the documents enumerated in the dossier.

Dreyfus Demonstrations in Italy.

Rome, Sept. 12.—Colonel Panizzardi, referring to the verdict at Rennes, said: "I felt horror, but not surprise." Spontaneous demonstrations in favor of Captain Dreyfus have occurred in many parts of Italy. In Florence a crowd, shouting "Down with the Jesuits," threatened the French consulate. The police interfered and a fight ensued in which many persons were hurt. Twenty arrests were made.

Royal Commissioner Indignant.

Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Sept. 12.—W. D. Stevens, a ship owner and royal commissioner to the Paris exhibition, has declared that, as a result of the Dreyfus verdict, he will not put his foot on French soil. He adds that thousands of his countrymen will take the same attitude. Several important firms have already declined to exhibit at Paris.

Public Prepared For Dreyfus' Pardon.

Paris, Sept. 12.—The Journal des Debats says it hopes that after the Rennes verdict the sentiment of humanity will find scope, even in the most desperate of conflicts. Public opinion, it adds, is quite prepared for the eventualty of Dreyfus' pardon.

BIG FAILURE

English Light and Manufacturing Company Assigns.

English, Ind., Sept. 12.—The English Electric Light and Manufacturing company has made an assignment to W. L. Luckett and J. R. Duffin, for the benefit of creditors. The papers were quietly filed, but when the news became public it caused a great sensation. Many thousands of dollars are involved. The company furnished light for the city and had one of the largest spoke factories in southern Indiana, and it carried an immense stock of agricultural implements, buggies, wagons and commercial fertilizers. It has branch houses at Birdseye, Bokert, Marango, Milltown and Corydon. The bank wreck of 1897 is probably at the bottom of the trouble. The company was apparently doing a flourishing business, and the crash came like a thunderbolt on the community. It was unequalled by anything in the history of the county. The assets and liabilities are not known.

TAKEN TO KENTUCKY

Dr. J. W. Smith Leaves Marshall, Ill., in Custody of an Officer.

Marshall, Ill., Sept. 12.—A. N. Denton, city marshal of Owingville, Ky., left here yesterday with Dr. Jacob W. Smith, arrested here on Saturday on a requisition from the governor of Kentucky, to answer to the charge of murder. Benjamin Smith, state's attorney of Clark county, Mo., a brother of the accused, accompanied the prisoner.

A singular coincidence in Dr. Smith's affairs is that he was born and raised in Clark county, Ind., and died after the killing to Clark county, Mo., and then came to Clark county, Ill., where he has lived for the last 15 years.

SAN RAFAEL SKIRMISH

Captain Butler Drives the Filipinos Out and Takes Prisoners of War.

Washington, Sept. 12.—General Otis has informed the war department that two companies of the Nineteenth Infantry left last night for Iloilo to be followed today by headquarters and the balance of the two battalions to relieve the Tennessee regiment at Iloilo and Cebu. The following also was received from General Otis: "Captain Butler, Third Infantry, with portion Bulag troops, drove insurgents at San Rafael, capturing seven with arms. Insurgent forces made demonstration against Santa Rita on Poma road; loss, two officers, six privates with arms, captured by Colonel Bell. No casualties among our troops."

GEN'L. LAWTON'S DENIAL

Says Reported Interviews With Him, Criticizing Conduct of Operations, Are Without Foundation—General Otis' Friends Now Believe He Will Not Be Superseded.

Washington, Sept. 12.—General Otis has informed the war department that two companies of the Nineteenth Infantry left last night for Iloilo to be followed today by headquarters and the balance of the two battalions to relieve the Tennessee regiment at Iloilo and Cebu. The following also was received from General Otis: "Captain Butler, Third Infantry, with portion Bulag troops, drove insurgents at San Rafael, capturing seven with arms. Insurgent forces made demonstration against Santa Rita on Poma road; loss, two officers, six privates with arms, captured by Colonel Bell. No casualties among our troops."

The war department also makes public the following cable from General Schwan at Manila: "Lawton pronounced utterly without foundation newspaper reports of interview asserting that he commented on military situation or criticized conduct of operations here. Declares beforehand as false all future accounts of such interviews."

General Schwan is a colonel in the adjutant general's department, and was made a brigadier during the Spanish war. General Corbin stated that he does not know what the denial refers to and that the department has addressed no inquiry to General Lawton.

GENERAL OTIS

His Friends Now Believe He Will Not Be Superseded.

Washington, Sept. 12.—The friends of General Otis are becoming hopeful that they will succeed in having him retained in his present command. Last week they were deeply discouraged, and one, a high official in the war department, openly admitted that he believed "popular clamor" would result in his friend's recall and the assignment of General Miles or General Merritt to Manila.

The prediction is now being confidently made by General Otis' admirers that he will be permitted to demonstrate what he can do with a large army before being censured for his failure to make more progress during the last campaign.

It is impossible, owing to the conflicting interests at work, to state positively how the contest for supremacy will terminate. General Miles' friends are as confident as are those of General Otis, but the drift of feeling now seems to have turned in favor of the latter.

Plans have been adopted at the department, however, under which General Lawton and General MacArthur are each to be given a responsible command of several divisions and they will begin operation just as soon as the rainy season is considered at end. The cavalry will be under command of General Lawton, while General MacArthur's command will be composed principally of infantry. One command will operate to the north, while the other will probably cover the south.

The president has directed that the navy co-operate with the army in the fall campaign, but it is expected that its work will be generally confined to blockading. A few of the smaller gunboats will, however, be sent as far inland as the conditions will permit.

The marines, too, are to play an important part in the operations in the vicinity of Cavite. Within a short time nearly 700 marines will be on hand in the Philippines and they will be assigned to duty in the southern part of the island of Luzon, which is the hotbed of the insurrection.

General MacArthur and General Lawton will be held responsible for the campaign in their territory.

DEVIL ANSE HATFIELD

Captured in the Mountains of West Virginia Without Bloodshed.

Williamson, W. Va., Sept. 12.—Sheriff Henderson of Logan county and a posse of 15 went to the Hatfield fort, in the mountains, 80 miles from here, and, without bloodshed, captured Devil Anse Hatfield, his son Bob and John Dingess, a relative of the Hatfields by marriage. The prisoners will be taken to Pike county and tried on charges of murder, growing out of the Hatfield-McCoy feud. "Cap" Hatfield, the only prominent member of the faction now at liberty, is being hunted by a posse.

Mrs. Lorana Finley, two sisters and brother was caught in the hail storm near P. P. Curry's. Their horses became unmanageable throwing the occupants from the carriage and running towards Brownstons. Miss Phoebe Loudon, daughter of C. D. Loudon, departed this life Wednesday, September 6th, aged 22 years, 11 months, 4 days. Her death was the result of consumption. She was born into Christ by christian baptism in her 13th year. She lived a true christian and heeded not the many voices that would call her away from the narrow path, but sought the green pastures and still water that refresh the fold of Christ. And when the evening of her life drew near, she closed her eyes and feared not to enter the dark valley of death nor dreaded the silent slumber of the tomb, there to rest in sweet repose till the down of the resurrection morn when she shall be awakened to the light of perfect day.

WORRY.

What This Foolish, Enervating Habit Does For Mankind.

Worry is forethought gone to seed. Worry is discounting possible future sorrows so that the individual may have present misery. Worry is the father of insomnia. Worry is the traitor in our camp that dampens our powder, weakens our aim. Under the guise of helping us to bear the present and to be ready for the future worry multiplies enemies within our mind to sap our strength.

Worry is the dominance of the mind by a single, vague, restless, unsatisfied, fearing and fearful idea. The mental energy and force that should be concentrated on the successive duties of the day is constantly and surreptitiously abstracted and absorbed by this one fixed idea. The full, rich strength of the unconscious working of the mind, that which produces our best success, that represents our finest activity, is tapped, led away and wasted on worry.

Worry must not be confused with anxiety, though both words agree in meaning originally, a "choking," or a "strangling," referring, of course, to the throttling effect upon individual activity. Anxiety faces large issues of life seriously, calmly, with dignity. Anxiety always suggests hopeful possibility; it is active in being ready and devising measures to meet the outcome. Worry is not one large individual sorrow; it is a colony of petty, vague, insignificant, restless, imp of fear, that become important only from their combination, their constancy, their iteration. "Perhaps you are right," answered Miss Cayenne. "When a man knows such a very great deal, he makes one apprehensive. There is no telling when he may be going to sit down and try to tell it all."—Washington Star.

THE GREEDY CATFISH.

His Eating Capacity as Wonderful as His Hold on Life.

The catfish belongs to an ancient type not yet fully made into a fish, and hence those whose paired fins are all properly fastened to the head, as his are not, hold him in well merited scorn. He has no scales and no bright colors. His fins are small and his head and mouth are large. Around his mouth are eight long "smellers," fleshy feelers, that he pushes out as he crawls along the bottom in search of anything that he may eat. As he may eat anything, he always finds it. His appetite is as impartial as that of a goat. Anything, from a dead lamprey or a bunch of sunfish eggs to a piece of tomato can, is grateful to him.

In each of the fins, which represent his arms, is a long, sharp bone, with a slimy surface and a serrated edge. These are fastened by a ball and socket joint, and whenever the fish is alarmed the bone is whirled over and set in place; then it sticks out stiffly on each side. There is another such bone in the fin on the back, and when all of these are set there is no fish that can swallow him.

When he takes the hook, which he surely will do if there is any hook to be taken, he will swallow it greedily. As he is drawn out of the water he sets his three spines and laughs to himself as the boy pricks his fingers trying to get the hook from his stomach. This the boy is sure to do, and because the boy of the Mississippi valley is always fishing for catfish is the reason why his fingers are always sore. The catfish is careless of the present and sure of the future. After he is strung on a birch branch and dried in the sun and sprinkled with dust and has had his stomach dug out to recover the hook, if he falls into the brook he will swim away. He holds no malice and is ready to bite again at the first thing in sight.—Popular Science Monthly.

CHINESE COURT HISTORIANS

They May Write the Truth, For Their Work Is Secret.

There are court historians in China, as there are in other countries, but there is one striking difference, and it lies in the fact that the work of the Chinese court historians does not see the light until the reigning dynasty comes to an end.

In this way these Celestial historians have an opportunity to describe most truthfully the virtues and vices of the valiant rulers and the real significance of the events which take place during their regime. They can write what they please without fear of censure, for they know that their work will not be published as long as the reigning dynasty lasts.

This has been the rule for more than 2,000 years, the first court historian having been appointed by the imperial house of Han, which reigned from 206 B. C. until 25 A. D.

The duty of these historians is to write plain accounts of all the events that occur during their tenure of office. At regular intervals their completed work is taken from them and is locked up in an iron safe or vault. There it remains until the first member of a new dynasty ascends the throne.

It is then given with all the other histories in the vault to the court historian, who is then living, and from the mass of documents he is expected to prepare a truthful history of the dynasty which has just expired. The present dynasty has been reigning since 1640 and consequently no court history has been published since that date.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Route as Pronounced.

There are numerous excuses for the pronunciation of the word route, and a man may hardly go amiss to choose his own style. Down south they say always rowt. In the north, among the educated classes, we hear root. Here also we hear, lower down, especially among the hyphenated Americans, rut. The Irish, even big folk, say rut. The original Webster gives the pronunciation as rowt, with an admission of a French leaning. The word rut, meaning a deep track in a roadway, cut by the rim of a wheel, is simply a contraction of route and root. The Century dictionary says root or rowt, preference for root. We also say routine for routine; why not, therefore, root for route? Rowtine would sound funny.—New York Press.

He Didn't Like Pledges.

Judge Martin Grover of Troy, N. Y., was at one time approached by a young citizen who wished to be nominated to the state assembly. The shrewd old judge had certain doubts about him, and yet he was willing to afford him a trial. He therefore addressed the aspirant in this way:

"Young man, if you will give me your word that you won't steal when you get to Albany, I'll see what kin be done about sendin you there."

"Judge Grover," replied the young man, drawing himself up with great dignity, "I go to Albany unpledged or I don't go at all."

Wood Tar.

It is curious to note that wood tar is prepared just as it was in the fourth century, B. C. A bark is chosen and a hole dug into which the wood is placed, covered with turf. A fire is lighted underneath, and the tar slowly drips into the barrels placed to receive it.

MAPLE SUGAR.

Widespread Ignorance on the Part of Consumers.

Speaking of maple sugar brings to mind the fact that there is no product of the farm concerning which there is greater ignorance on the part of consumers than maple sugar and sirup. It seems to be almost the universal opinion that maple sirup to be genuine must be dark in color and of a thick, heavy body. I have carefully studied this matter, and I am convinced that dealers in large towns and cities are largely responsible for this. Maple sirup is one of the easiest things to "doctor." For instance, a gallon of strictly pure, light colored maple sirup is received, and foreign substances, as cane sugar or glucose, are added and three gallons made, and all are branded "pure maple sirup."

Some years ago I stepped into a grocery store in the city of Denver and inquired if they had any genuine maple sirup. "Oh, yes!"—and I was shown cans branded "pure Vermont maple sirup." I asked the grocer if he would kindly let me taste a sample. He did so, and as I looked up I suspect he began to "smell mice" and asked if I was a manufacturer of the article. I said, "Yes, and I ship it every spring to your city." Seeing he was fairly caught, he said: "The fact is I cannot fool you, I see. This sirup of ours was probably made in Chicago."

Last spring I sent a gallon by request to a pastor of a church in Brooklyn who in his boyhood days used to live on a farm in Chenango county and knew what real maple sirup was. We sent him a gallon of early make, of a light amber shade, and at once received word that the sirup was entirely ahead of any he had ever seen, and that it was an utter impossibility to procure such in the city.

Why is it impossible? I know fine sirup is made and shipped. The fact is, as I said before, the consumer is not allowed to taste that fine, light colored, genuinely pure article, for once he gets a taste of it the trade for the bogus article is gone. A few days ago a friend told me he sent a pound of fine sugar, made by one of our farmers, to his mother in Baltimore. The cake weighed 18 ounces, and as it went by mail it cost him 18 cents postage. The letter carrier who delivered it said it must be something valuable to pay so much postage. The lady said she could guess what it was. It was a cake of maple sugar her boy had sent her from New York.

As the carrier lived close by the lady told him to come in during the evening and she would show him something good. He did so, but the moment he saw it he said: "You can't fool me. That isn't maple sugar. Maple sugar is always black." She chopped off a corner and told him to sample it. He declared he had never seen maple sugar before and wanted the lady to write and order him 100 pounds. The sugar was shipped, cash received, and one man learned that maple sugar, in order to be genuine, need not be black as a stovepipe.—Country Gentleman.

There is said to be no longer any doubt that John R. Walsh, the Chicago capitalist, is to build an extension of his Indiana Southern road to Terre Haute. He is understood to have been there secretly last week for two days making final arrangements for the use of the Evansville & Terre Haute terminals for an entrance to the city. At the same time the Equitable Trust Company is making an offer of $1,000,000 bonds of the road, and in the announcement it is said that the extension from Elora will be to Terre Haute. The road has 101.8 miles from Elora, on the west, to Westport, on the east, making a loop through several of the southern central counties of the State. The extension to Linton, the mining town between Terre Haute and Elora, is about completed and it had been thought that the Terre Haute extension would be a matter for consideration in future years, and certainly not before next year. With the completed extension the Indiana Southern will have 150 miles of road, running through the best coal and stone fields in the State.—Journal.

Remembered Again.

Saturday evening Frank J. Smith was again kindly remembered by some more of the men who had been working under him here and wanted him to carry away some token of their friendship and esteem. Earlier in the day the firemen had presented him a beautiful Knights of Pythias charm. In the evening the engineers showed that they had counseled together when they gave Mr. Smith a fine diamond ring. But it did not end there. The round house boys remembered him with a beautiful gold watch chain. Mr. Smith was completely outdone and could scarcely find words to express his appreciation to the boys, with whom he so thoroughly endeared himself while in Seymour.

(The above was overlooked on the writer's desk yesterday until the paper was on the press therefore it does not appear until today.—ED.)

The finest quality of loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to that of maple syrup, making it very pleasant to take. to the coffee drinker. Coffee drinking is a habit that is universally indulged in and almost as universally injurious. Have you tried Grain-O? It is almost like coffee but the effects are just the opposite. Coffee upsets the stomach, ruins the digestion, effects the heart and disturbs the whole nervous system. Grain-O tones up the stomach, aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. There is nothing but nourishment.

LaGrippe,

Followed by Heart Disease, Cured by DR. MILES' HEART CURE.

M. R. C. O. SHULTS, of Winterset, Iowa, inventor and manufacturer of Shults' Safety Whistle-Coupling, writes of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. "Two years ago an attack of LaGrippe left me with a weak heart. I had run down in flesh to mere skin and bone. I could not sleep down for smothering spells; frequent sharp darting pains and palpitation caused a constant fear of sudden death, nothing could induce me to remain away from home over night. My local physician prescribed Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and in a few days I was able to sleep well and the pains gradually lessened, and finally ceased. I reduced the dose, having gained fifteen pounds, and am now feeling better in every way than I have for years."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

A SERIOUS PROBLEM

Believed Congress Will Be Asked to Abandon the Paris Exposition.

AS AN OFFICIAL INSULT

Withdrawal From Participation, Because of Dreyfus Verdict, Might Be So Regarded by the French—Unless Forbidden by Congress the Administration Will Carry Out Its Plans

Washington, Sept. 12.—It is believed that when congress assembles there will be considerable agitation of a proposition for this government to abandon its participation in the Paris exposition. It is known that expressions hostile to the exposition quoted from Senator Stewart are very widely sympathized in and it is thought that if the conviction of Dreyfus is permitted to stand there will be very little friendly feeling for France among members of either the house or senate.

Such a move, however, would be a grave one. It is pointed out that to withdraw from participation in the exposition would be regarded as an official insult to France. No further legislation on the part of congress is needed to carry out the plans of this country for the exposition. About $1,200,000 has been appropriated for the expenses of the commission and the government exhibit; the commission has been appointed and the space desired for exhibits from this country has been secured.

There are now only two ways in which congress could interfere, one would be to revoke such part of the appropriation as has not been already expended in the expenses of the commission and the other would be to pass a resolution declaring that on account of the unsettled conditions the valuable government exhibits should not be sent to Paris. To do either of these things would be sufficient, it is believed, to break off all friendly relations between the two countries.

Congress and the state department may look at the matter from different points of view. The president and the state department having responsibility for maintaining our relations with foreign governments, cannot be expected to find in this affair a reason for involving the country in an international complication, and it is likely that the executive branch of the government will use what influence it can to prevent hasty action.

Unless congress expressly forbids it, this government will proceed with the preparations for the exhibition and will send to Paris such government exhibits as are decided upon, but this will be done with a realization of the probability that much of the space secured with such difficulty for private American exhibits will be left vacant. Little doubt is felt that the latitude allowed the private citizen will be quite extensively availed of to withdraw from participation in the exposition.

Another difficulty in the way of an effort to prevent participation in the exposition, however, will be found in the fact that before congress has assembled much of the government exhibit probably will be packed and on its way to Paris, if not actually there. The exposition opens in April and the work of transporting and preparing the exhibit will have to begin some months before that time. Up to this time it is said the preparation of the government exhibit has not begun, but the work will proceed as soon as the government officials are ready.

Representative Hepburn of Iowa said that he had ceased to marvel at the methods of French army justice after observing how the trial of Dreyfus was conducted. No such trial or verdict was possible in the United States. He

CONSUMPTION.

The germs of consumption are everywhere. You may breathe them with the air, drink them with water, eat them with your food. They are not dangerous if you are in perfect health but if you have a slight cold, or cough, or if you have inherited weak lungs, or if you are weak and run-down generally—look out!

Once consumption gets a strong foothold it is almost impossible to dislodge it. The time to cure it is at the beginning or before it starts. If you are run-down—build yourself up. Make every tissue so strong and well that consumption germs cannot find a foothold. Fill your body with rich, red blood—build up strong, healthy flesh—put your digestive system in perfect order. Don't drag along half dead. You may be well as well as dead. The following letter from Mrs. Jennie Dingman, of Van Buren, Kansas Co., Mich., will tell you how to do it. She says: "Before I took

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

I was hardly able to do my work at all; had pain in my left side and back, and had headache all the time. I tried your medicine and it helped me. Last spring I had a bad cough; got so bad I had to be in bed all the time. My husband thought I had consumption. We thought we would try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and before I had taken one bottle the cough stopped and I have since had no signs of its returning."

did not think it would in any way affect diplomatic relations between this country and France, nor did he think it would interfere with United States exhibitors at the coming exposition.

TO RELIEVE SAMPSON

Rear Admiral Farquhar to Command the North Atlantic Squadron. Washington, Sept. 12.—The navy department has reached a final determination to assign Rear Admiral Norman H. Farquhar to command of the North Atlantic squadron, to succeed Admiral Sampson, and to place the latter in command of the Boston navyyard, to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of Admiral Pickens. The transfer will take place on Oct. 10.

Rear Admiral Farquhar is one of the veteran officers of the navy, his service covering the civil war as well as the Spanish-American conflict. His last sea service was as commander of the Newark in 1896. His shore assignments have included stations at the Boston navyyard, the League Island navyyard, and since 1897 at the Norfolk navyyard. He was commissioned rear admiral on March 8 last, under the naval personnel bill.

Invited to Visit St. Paul. Washington, Sept. 12.—A delegation of Minnesota G. A. R. men yesterday saw President McKinley. The delegation was headed by Judge D. B. Searle, L. Torrence, L. M. Collins and Captain H. A. Castle. The president was asked by Judge Searle if he would be able to visit St. Paul in October. The president answered that he could not promise to make the trip, but would do so if possible.

ASK FOR MERCY

Judges of Court Martial Ask That Dreyfus Be Not Degraded.

Rennes, Sept. 12.—The judges of the Dreyfus court martial late yesterday, by mutual agreement, expressed to the president of the republic, through General Lucas, the commander of the army corps at Rennes, their sincere desire that Dreyfus would not be submitted to a fresh degradation.

When M. Labori's secretary informed Dreyfus of this action he was greatly affected and said: "I still have hopes."

AGITATION IN GERMANY

In Favor of Withdrawing From the Paris Exposition.

Berlin, Sept. 12.—The private agitation against the exposition is beginning to find vigorous expressions. The Vossische Zeitung said last evening that a number of the largest German firms have pledged themselves to withdraw.

The Berliner Tageblatt says the Berlin council at its next session will consider a special motion to withdraw the Berlin municipal exhibit.

On the other hand it is learned on highest authority that the German government considers the Dreyfus case now, under all the conditions, done with and does not intend to relinquish official representation at the exhibition. The official responsible for this assurance adds that it should be borne in mind that, despite the Dreyfus case, the official relations between the two governments had steadily improved during recent years.

Court Martial Dossier.

Paris, Sept. 12.—The dossier of the Rennes court martial proceedings has arrived here for submission to the military court of revision, consisting of General Marcella, Colonel Courbousse, Lieutenant Colonel Lagrene, Major Copp and Major Allard. It is said that Mathieu Dreyfus intends to supplicate Emperor William to order the publication of the documents enumerated in the dossier.

Dreyfus Demonstrations in Italy. Rome, Sept. 12.—Colonel Paulizaire, referring to the verdict at Rennes, said: "I felt horror, but not surprise." Spontaneous demonstrations in favor of Captain Dreyfus have occurred in many parts of Italy. In Florence a crowd, shouting "Down with the Jesuits," threatened the French consulate. The police interfered and a fight ensued in which many persons were hurt. Twenty arrests were made.

Royal Commissioner Indignant. Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Sept. 12.—W. D. Stevens, a ship owner and royal commissioner to the Paris exhibition, has declared that, as a result of the Dreyfus verdict, he will not put his foot on French soil. He adds that thousands of his countrymen will take the same attitude. Several important firms have already declined to exhibit at Paris.

Public Prepared For Dreyfus' Pardon.

Paris, Sept. 12.—The Journal des Debats says it hopes that after the Rennes verdict the sentiment of humanity will find scope, even in the most desperate of conflicts. Public opinion, it adds, is quite prepared for the eventuality of Dreyfus' pardon.

MESSEMBRIA RANGE

Settlers, Who Hold Tax Title, to Be Ousted by the Carnegies. Ashland, Wis., Sept. 12.—The county clerk has been notified, by men supposed to represent the Carnegie interests, that persons who had settled on the deserted Messembria range mining properties in Ashland and Iron counties on tax deeds sold by the county would be ousted. The syndicate had not paid taxes on these lands for seven years. It is understood that the boom in iron has stimulated the opening of this range, partially explored and deserted 10 years ago. The Messembria is an extension southwesterly of the Goegebie range.

BIG FAILURE

English Light and Manufacturing Company Assigns. English, Ind., Sept. 12.—The English Electric Light and Manufacturing company has made an assignment to W. L. Luckett and J. R. Duffin, for the benefit of creditors. The papers were quietly filed, but when the news became public it caused a great sensation. Many thousands of dollars are involved. The company furnished light for the city and had one of the largest spoke factories in southern Indiana, and it carried an immense stock of agricultural implements, buggies, wagons and commercial fertilizers. It has branch houses at Birdseye, Ellettsburg, Marango, Milltown and Corydon. The bank wreck of 1897 is probably at the bottom of the trouble. The company was apparently doing a flourishing business, and the crash came like a thunderbolt on the community. It was unequalled by anything in the history of the county. The assets and liabilities are not known.

Dr. J. W. Smith Leaves Marshall, Ill., in Custody of an Officer.

Marshall, Ill., Sept. 12.—A. N. Denton, city marshal of Owensville, Ky., left here yesterday with Dr. Jacob W. Smith, arrested here on Saturday on a requisition from the governor of Kentucky, to answer to the charge of murder. Benjamin Smith, state's attorney of Clark county, Mo., a brother of the accused, accompanied the prisoner.

A singular coincidence in Dr. Smith's affairs is that he was born and raised in Clark county, Ind., and died after the killing to Clark county, Mo., and then came to Clark county, Ill., where he has lived for the last 15 years.

SAN RAFAEL SKIRMISH

Captain Butler Drives the Filopinos Out and Takes Prisoners of War.

GEN'L. LAWTON'S DENIAL

Says Reported Interviews With Him, Criticizing Conduct of Operations, Are Without Foundation—General Otis' Friends Now Believe He Will Not Be Superseded.

Washington, Sept. 12.—General Otis has informed the war department that two companies of the Nineteenth Infantry left last night for Hilo to be followed today by headquarters and the balance of the two battalions to relieve the Tennessee regiment at Hilo and Cebu. The following also was received from General Otis: "Captain Butler, Third Infantry, with portion Baiting troops, drove insurgents at San Rafael, capturing seven with arms. Insurgent forces made demonstration against Santa Rita on Poma road; loss, two officers, six privates with arms, captured by Colonel Bell. No casualties among our troops."

The war department also makes public the following cable from General Schwan at Manila: "Lawton pronounces utterly without foundation newspaper reports of interview asserting that he commented on military situation or criticized conduct of operations here. Declares beforehand as false all future accounts of such interviews."

General Schwan is a colonel in the adjutant general's department, and was made a brigadier during the Spanish war. General Corbin stated that he does not know what the denial refers to and that the department has addressed no inquiry to General Lawton.

GENERAL OTIS

His Friends Now Believe He Will Not Be Superseded.

Washington, Sept. 12.—The friends of General Otis are becoming hopeful that they will succeed in having him retained in his present command. Last week they were deeply discouraged, and one, a high official in the war department, openly admitted that he believed "popular clamor" would result in his friend's recall and the assignment of General Miles or General Merritt to Manila.

The prediction is now being confidently made by General Otis' admirers that he will be permitted to demonstrate what he can do with a large army before being censured for his failure to make more progress during the last campaign.

It is impossible, owing to the conflicting interests at work, to state positively how the contest for supremacy will terminate. General Miles' friends are as confident as are those of General Otis, but the drift of feeling now seems to have turned in favor of the latter.

Plans have been adopted at the department, however, under which General Lawton and General MacArthur are each to be given a responsible command of several divisions and they will begin operation just as soon as the rainy season is considered at end. The cavalry will be under command of General Lawton, while General MacArthur's command will be composed principally of infantry. One command will operate to the north, while the other will probably cover the south.

The president has directed that the navy co-operate with the army in the fall campaign, but it is expected that its work will be generally confined to blockading. A few of the smaller gunboats will, however, be sent as far inland as the conditions will permit.

The marines, too, are to play an important part in the operations in the vicinity of Cavite. Within a short time nearly 700 marines will be on hand in the Philippines and they will be assigned to duty in the southern part of the island of Luzon, which is the hotbed of the insurrection.

General MacArthur and General Lawton will be held responsible for the campaign in their territory.

DEVIL ANSE HATFIELD

Va., Sept. 12.—Sheriff Henderson of Logan county and a posse of 15 went to the Hatfield fort, in the mountains, 80 miles from here, and without bloodshed, captured Devil Anse Hatfield, his son Bob and John Dingess, a relative of the Hatfields by marriage. The prisoners will be taken to Pike county and tried on charges of murder, growing out of the Hatfield-McCoy feud. "Cap" Hatfield, the only prominent member of the faction now at liberty, is being hunted by a posse.

Cod Fishery Failure. Halifax, N. S., Sept. 12.—Fishermen who have returned from the cod fishing grounds on the Labrador coast report a serious condition of affairs. The cod fishery has been almost an absolute failure and all vessels are returning with small fares. As the fisheries are the chief support of the people, it is feared their failure will be followed by starvation in many parts of Labrador unless assistance is forthcoming.

Bremen Consulate. Washington, Sept. 12.—Although the president has not yet acted upon the report of the state department in the matter of United States Consul Lange at Bremen, charged with irregularities in connection with fees, it is expected that a change will be made soon and that Henry W. Washington, Sept. 12.—There are whisperings in political circles that Elihu Root, secretary of war, is likely to be the administration candidate for the Republican nomination for vice president. William Bower purchased some fine timber of William Dryden which he is having yarded on Christian Brannan's place.

While ye scribe was in Clearspring Friday evening quite a hail storm visited that place. It looked for a while like none would be left to tell the story but it quickly passed over, leaving the town quite a wreck in the way of window glass, shade, fruit trees and fencing. No one seriously hurt except a few bruises on the head by the falling hail stones. The storm only extended a short distance from town.

Mrs. Lorana Finley, two sisters and brother was caught in the hail storm near P. P. Curry's. Their horses became unmanageable throwing the occupants from the carriage and running towards Brownstown. Fortunately they only ran a short distance, before getting into the fence where they were found and taken care of by James Weddle until owners called for them. No damage done.

Miss Phoebe Loudon, daughter of C. D. Loudon, departed this life Wednesday, September 6th, aged 22 years, 11 months, 4 days. Her death was the result of consumption. She was born into Christ by Christian baptism in her 13th year. She lived a true Christian and heeded not the many voices that would call her away from the narrow path, but sought the green pastures and still water that refresh the fold of Christ. And when the evening of her life drew near, she closed her eyes and feared not to enter the dark valley of death nor dreaded the silent slumber of the tomb, there to rest in sweet repose till the down of the resurrection morn when she shall be awakened to the light of perfect day.

Driving preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. All druggists sell it at 50 cents or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

WORRY.

What This Foolish, Enervating Habit Does For Mankind.

Worry is forethought gone to seed. Worry is discounting possible future sorrows so that the individual may have present misery. Worry is the father of insomnia. Worry is the traitor in our camp that dampens our powder, weakens our aim. Under the guise of helping us to bear the present and to be ready for the future worry multiplies enemies within our mind to sap our strength.

Worry is the dominance of the mind by a single, vague, restless, unsatisfied, fearing and fearful idea. The mental energy and force that should be concentrated on the successive duties of the day is constantly and surreptitiously abstracted and absorbed by this one fixed idea. The full, rich strength of the unconscious working of the mind, that which produces our best success, that represents our finest activity, is tapped, led away and wasted on worry.

Worry must not be confused with anxiety, though both words agree in meaning originally, a "choking," or a "strangling," referring, of course, to the throttling effect upon individual activity. Anxiety faces large issues of life seriously, calmly, with dignity. Anxiety always suggests hopeful possibility; it is active in being ready and devising measures to meet the outcome. Worry is not one large individual sorrow; it is a colony of petty, vague, insignificant, restless, imps of fear, that become important only from their combination, their constancy, their iteration.—William George Jordan in The Saturday Evening Post.

A Penalty of Knowledge. "It seems to me," remarked the high browed theorist, "that people positively resent education. A man who is more than ordinarily wise is usually left to himself as much as possible." "Perhaps you are right," answered Miss Cayenne. "When a man knows such a very great deal, he makes one apprehensive. There is no telling when he may be going to sit down and try to tell it all."—Washington Star.

THE GREEDY CATFISH.

His Eating Capacity as Wonderful as His Hold on Life.

The catfish belongs to an ancient type not yet fully made into a fish, and hence those whose paired fins are not properly fastened to the head, as his are not, hold him in well merited scorn. He has no scales and no bright colors. His fins are small and his head and mouth are large. Around his mouth are eight long "smellers," fleshy feelers, that he pushes out as he crawls along the bottom in search of anything that he may eat. As he may eat anything, he always finds it. His appetite is as impartial as that of a goat. Anything, from a dead lamprey or a bunch of sunfish eggs to a piece of tomato can, is grateful to him.

In each of the fins, which represent his arms, is a long, sharp bone, with a slimy surface and a serrated edge. These are fastened by a ball and socket joint, and whenever the fish is alarmed the bone is whirled over and set in place; then it sticks out stiffly on each side. There is another such bone in the fin on the back, and when all of these are set there is no fish that can swallow him.

When he takes the hook, which he surely will do if there is any hook to be taken, he will swallow it greedily. As he is drawn out of the water he sets his three spines and laughs to himself as the boy pricks his fingers trying to get the hook from his stomach. This the boy is sure to do, and because the boy of the Mississippi valley is always fishing for catfish is the reason why his fingers are always sore. The catfish is careless of the present and sure of the future. After he is strung on a birch branch and dried in the sun and sprinkled with dust and has had his stomach dug out to recover the hook, if he falls into the brook he will swim away. He holds no malice and is ready to bite again at the first thing in sight.—Popular Science Monthly.

CHINESE COURT HISTORIANS

They May Write the Truth, For Their Work Is Secret.

There are court historians in China, as there are in other countries, but there is one striking difference, and it lies in the fact that the work of the Chinese court historians does not see the light until the reigning dynasty comes to an end.

In this way these Celestial historians have an opportunity to describe most truthfully the virtues and vices of the valiant rulers and the real significance of the events which take place during their regime. They can write what they please without fear of censure, for they know that their work will not be published as long as the reigning dynasty lasts.

This has been the rule for more than 2,000 years, the first court historian having been appointed by the imperial house of Han, which reigned from 206 B. C. until 25 A. D.

The duty of these historians is to write plain accounts of all the events that occur during their tenure of office. At regular intervals their completed work is taken from them and is locked up in an iron safe or vault. There it remains until the first member of a new dynasty ascends the throne.

It is then given with all the other histories in the vault to the court historian, who is then living, and from the mass of documents he is expected to prepare a truthful history of the dynasty which has just expired. The present dynasty has been reigning since 1640 and consequently no court history has been published since that date.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Route as Pronounced.

There are numerous excuses for the pronunciation of the word route, and a man may hardly go amiss to choose his own style. Down south they say always rowt. In the north, among the educated classes, we hear root. Here also we hear, lower down, especially among the hyphenated Americans, rut. The Irish, even big folk, say rut. The original Webster gives the pronunciation as rowt, with an admission of root. We have adopted root because of a French leaning. The word rut, meaning a deep track in a roadway, cut by the rim of a wheel, is simply a contraction of route and rout. The Century dictionary says root or rowt, preference for root. We also say routine for routine; why not, therefore, root for route? Routine would sound funny.—New York Press.

He Didn't Like Pledges.

Judge Martin Grover of Troy, N. Y., was at one time approached by a young citizen who wished to be nominated to the state assembly. The shrewd old judge had certain doubts about him, which he expressed somewhat freely, and yet he was willing to afford him a trial. He therefore addressed the aspirant in this way:

"Young man, if you will give me your word that you won't steal when you get to Albany, I'll see what can be done about sending you there."

"Judge Grover," replied the young man, drawing himself up with great dignity, "I go to Albany unpledged or I don't go at all."

Wood Tar.

It is curious to note that wood tar is prepared just as it was in the fourth century, B. C. A bark is chosen and a hole dug, into which the wood is placed, covered with turf. A fire is lighted underneath, and the tar slowly drips into the barrels placed to receive it.

MAPLE SUGAR.

Widespread Ignorance on the Part of Consumers.

Speaking of maple sugar brings to mind the fact that there is no product of the farm concerning which there is greater ignorance on the part of consumers than maple sugar and sirup. It seems to be almost the universal opinion that maple sirup to be genuine must be dark in color and of a thick, heavy body. I have carefully studied this matter, and I am convinced that dealers in large towns and cities are largely responsible for this. Maple sirup is one of the easiest things to "doctor." For instance, a gallon of strictly pure, light colored maple sirup is received, and foreign substances, as cane sugar or glucose, are added and three gallons made, and all are branded "pure maple sirup."

Some years ago I stepped into a grocery store in the city of Denver and inquired if they had any genuine maple sirup. "Oh, yes,"—and I was shown cans branded "pure Vermont maple sirup." I asked the grocer if he would kindly let me taste a sample. He did so, and as I looked up I suspect he began to "smell mice" and asked if I was a manufacturer of the article. I said, "Yes, and I ship it every spring to your city." Seeing he was fairly caught, he said: "The fact is I cannot fool you, I see. This sirup of ours was probably made in Chicago."

Last spring I sent a gallon by request to a pastor of a church in Brooklyn who in his boyhood days used to live on a farm in Chenango county and knew what real maple sirup was. We sent him a gallon of early make, of a light amber shade, and at once received word that the sirup was entirely ahead of any he had ever seen, and that it was an utter impossibility to procure such in the city.

Why is it impossible? I know fine sirup is made and shipped. The fact is, as I said before, the consumer is not allowed to taste that fine, light colored, genuinely pure article, for once he gets a taste of it the trade for the bogus article is gone. A few days ago a friend told me he sent a pound of fine

The Southern Indiana.

There is said to be no longer any doubt that John R. Walsh, the Chicago capitalist, is to build an extension of his Indiana Southern road to Terre Haute. He is understood to have been there secretly last week for two days making final arrangements for the use of the Evansville & Terre Haute terminals for an entrance to the city. At the same time the Equitable Trust Company is making an offer of $1,000,000 bonds of the road, and in the announcement it is said that the extension from Elkhart will be to Terre Haute. The road has 101.8 miles from Elkhart, on the west, to Westport, on the east, making a loop through several of the southern central counties of the State. The extension to Linton, the mining town between Terre Haute and Elkhart, is about completed and it had been thought that the Terre Haute extension would be a matter for consideration in future years, and certainly not before next year. With the completed extension the Indiana Southern will have 150 miles of road, running through the best coal and stone fields in the State.—Journal.

Remembered Again.

Saturday evening Frank J. Smith was again kindly remembered by some more of the men who had been working under him here and wanted him to carry away some token of their friendship and esteem. Earlier in the day the firemen had presented him a beautiful Knights of Pythias charm. In the evening the engineers showed that they had counseled together when they gave Mr. Smith a fine diamond ring. But it did not end there. The round house boys remembered him with a beautiful gold watch chain. Mr. Smith was completely outdone and could scarcely find words to express his appreciation to the boys, with whom he so thoroughly endeared himself while in Seymour.
